

Architecture: where is it going?

Lectures

Free, in Khmer, open to all

With the support of UNESCO Office in Phnom Penh

Cambodian architects with their own ideas about the future of architecture speak about their recently completed buildings.

Saturday 18 March 2006, 4.00 pm

HE Ros Borath

Subject: Conference hall and teaching facilities, Siem Reap and the VIP lounge at Phnom Penh International Airport

Saturday 25 March 2006, 4.00 pm

HE Phuoeng Sophean

Subject: The recently completed Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tonle Bassac, Phnom Penh

Saturday 1 April 2006, 4.00 pm

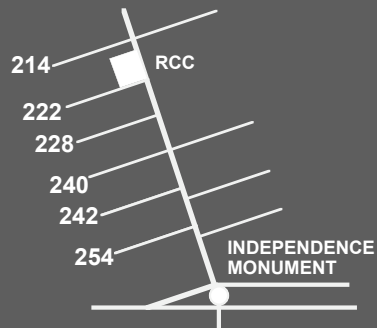

Young architects: Khuy Py, Hok Sokol

Subject: Recently completed projects, including houses and restaurants

Organised by SangSalapak : Building Arts

Info: www.sangsalapak.org.kh Contact: geoff.pyle@sangsalapak.org.kh

Location: Russian Cultural Centre
103 Norodom Boulevard
Phnom Penh
opposite Ministry of Education

Lectures, in Khmer, are free + open to all;
students / professionals / the public welcome